

I am a private citizen not affiliated in any way with any TV stations, networks, or any newspapers. I am opposed to any changes to the rules relaxing ownership requirements of the media I mention from their currently existing restrictions. In fact, a roll-back to previous more restrictive rules would be preferable. I urge the FCC to make no changes to those rules now and in the future.